From Fr. Mark's Desk:

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "Truly, you are the Son of God."

This statement of faith from the disciples, 'you are the Son of God', comes from a genuine encounter between the disciples and Jesus. A similar encounter occurs in the Transfiguration as the disciples hear the voice of the Father, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am will pleased; listen to him".

On the mountain of the Transfiguration, the disciples have received Jesus into their hearts and have reflected on his words. Jesus has led them to a moment, like Moses, in which they will experience the presence of God. Words cannot express this moment. Thus, Jesus will tell them not tell anyone what they saw.

As current followers and disciples of Jesus, we are given moments to see God in a unique way that words cannot reflect. In the Sacraments are such moments. In the words, 'this is my body', Jesus offers himself in such a way that only the heart and soul can understand.

It isn't difficult to have such encounters with God, but we must be observant, patient, and diligent. God is an active part of our lives. Each day is an opportunity to see that activity. In that context, we can begin each day with the prayer: "Lord, it is good that we are here."

As the faith of St. Peter grows and weakens and grows again, we too can take comfort from the words of Jesus to Peter and to us, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

~Next Saturday is the Solemnity of the Assumption, which is not a day of obligation this year. To honor the Solemnity, let us pray:

O God, who, looking on the lowliness of the Blessed Virgin Mary, raised her to this grace, that your Only Begotten Son was born of her according to the flesh and that she was crowned this day with surpassing glory, grant through her prayer, that, saved by the mystery of your redemption, we may merit to be exalted by you on high. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Have a great week!

Fr. Mark Walter
