Virtues—Hospitality

The virtue of hospitality is characterized by kindness and welcome, particularly to those who are strangers. It is the practice of true Christian love — love purely for the sake of the one “who loved us first” (1 John 4:19). ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Christ compares the kingdom of Heaven to buried treasure — the find of a lifetime, one you would risk everything to keep. Are we doing all we can to hold onto this treasure that we have been lucky enough to discover? What is Heaven worth to us? ©LPi

Missionary Cooperation Plan

We are hosting a missionary visitor! The Summer Missionary Cooperation Plan is an opportunity for our parish to learn about, support and be inspired by the work of missionaries ministering in another part of the world. We are pleased to receive a visit from Fr. Camillus Njoku, a representative of the Diocese of Port Harcourt, Nigeria, on the weekend of July 25/26.

Please pray for missionaries worldwide. If you are able, place a donation in the collection basket. Make checks out to the parish with Mission Appeal in the memo line. Or make a donation online at WeAreMissionary.org/give. ©archchicago.org

1st Reading Question

The Lord grants Solomon's request to give him a wise and discerning heart so he can rule justly over the people of Israel. Have you ever had a wish come true?

2nd Reading Question

Paul speaks of God working with believers according to his purposes. How would you describe your purpose or passion in life?

Gospel Question

Jesus often speaks in parables about the kingdom of Heaven that invite you to imagine how God works in the world. Where do you see God at work in your family? ©LPi

From Fr. Mark's Desk:

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field."

As many of you know, I walk the grounds of Holy Sepulchre cemetery with some frequency. Fr. Burns, founding pastor of St. Linus is buried close to the entrance. Like many founding pastors, he had a vision and was able to create what is today a reality. The vision required a lot of work, help, and determination. But, in the end he saw a treasure and built upon that vision. I also notice that someone regularly visits his grave, which I think is nice. Next to Fr. Burns is the grave of Fr. Fullmer. Fr. Fullmer was pastor of St. Denis when I was a child. I remember that after he offered Mass, he would enter the church to pray for a while. I always thought that was a holy action and attempt to do that after daily Mass each day. As a young priest, I lived with a retired priest, Fr. Mackin. Fr. Mackin once gave me great homily advice. "Mark, if you don't have a lot to say, don't take a long time saying it!"

These three priests have been an inspiration. They saw in their priesthood a treasure and they 'sold' everything to live the gift of that treasure. I like to think the same is true of me. I have found in the priesthood a treasure, a gift from God and I couldn't want anything more.

Hopefully everyone has such a treasure in their life. Whether it is marriage, children, career, hobby, or anything. God provides all of us a treasure and once we discover it, our lives are never the same.

The parable of this weekend intends to motivate us in seeking the joy of our own treasure. God delights in our discovery of his gifts. Take time to consider your treasure. If the treasure is another person, consider thanking them. Also, in prayer, thank God for the treasure that is you!

Have a great week!

Fr. Mark Walter

~This weekend we welcome our Summer Mission speaker, Fr. Camillus. There will be a second collection for this appeal.
